Title:	The digital environment Council of Europe Strategy for the Rights of the Child (2016-2021) Internet Literacy Handbook
Time:	It will take you 8-10 minutes to read the article and 20-25 minutes to scan the document and booklet and take notes on what is important to you.
Type of Resource:	Article, Document and Booklet
Content of the Resource	Summary Children need special protection online and they need to be educated about how to steer clear of danger and how to get maximum benefit from their use of the Internet. To achieve this, children need to become digital citizens. The Council of Europe Strategy for the rights of the child (2016-2021) includes a focus on children's rights on the Internet. The guide informs Internet users about how human rights apply online and makes the protection of children one of its seven main pillars. The newly revised Internet Literacy Handbook is a tool for children, parents, teachers and policy makers to be able to make the most of Internet and prepare future generations to use the Internet safely and confidently by being aware of opportunities and risks.
